The Federal Telegraph Company has entered into the Christmas spirit which pervades hospitable Hawaii at this time. Beginning with today the company is sending out all radiograms on a special Christmas form, which is both beautiful and ornamental. In one corner of the form, printed in red and white, Santa Claus appears in an attitude suggesting "compliments of the season," and a wreath of holly twigs adorns the border.

The Federal Telegraph Company has arranged to deliver Christmas greetings on these forms to any part of the United States, messages to be filed at any time up until 11 p. m. Thursday, and delivered at the breakfast table Christmas morning. Cheap night-letter rates obtain for this class of business.
